About

Sam F. Keziah Unionville American Legion Post 535, is a faith-based organization with an emphasis on community service and the inclusion of all veterans. Our Legion

Family and Activities Since 2009

Our Legion family, which totals around 270 people, consists of the members of the Post 535, the Auxiliary, the Sons of the American Legion, the Legion Riders and the Legion Cruisers.

We have won numerous NC State American Legion awards including: Americanism Post Award, Class D; W. Coburn Children and Youth Post Award, Class E; and NC Post Commander of the Year, NC Scout Master of the Year, Scout Troop of the Year, and Cub Scout of the Year, among others.

We are proud that two of our members have been inducted at the North Carolina Veterans Hall of Fame.

The Post's commitment to the Unionville community is a keystone to its existence.

Since its establishment, the Post has:

- Sponsored both Cub Scouts Boy Scouts, and Crew
- Sponsored the local American Legion Baseball Team
- Worked with the award-winning Piedmont Junior High School Shooting Team ·

Established a Legion Riders group

- Held an annual Bar-b-que
- Held an annual golf outing
- Sponsored the Miss Unionville Scholarship Pageant
- Founded and sponsored the first Unionville Christmas Parade 2011 · Assisted in the annual Unionville 4th of July parade and festivities In 2009 the Post's Honor Guard was established. Since then the Guard, in association with VFW Post 2423, has participated in over 120 ceremonies a year in honor of fallen veterans.

In October 2010, a Post Auxiliary was established and in 2014 a Sons of the American Legion (SAL) chapter was chartered. Membership in both of these groups have grown since their inception with the Auxiliary having over 50 members and the SAL having over 40 members.

Other activities include: participating in military funerals, wreath laying ceremonies, taking veterans to medical appointments, providing meals to veterans in need, and participating in orientation programs at schools. We also participate in the Unionville Christmas and 4th of July parades and present the Colors at several activities including the USO Show. We have also sponsored Memorial Day Buffet. In 2024 started a Veterans Coffee House
